UPCOMING EVENTS

- The annual fall potluck will be held in September. All ACAA members are welcome. More details to come.
- ACAA will offer three events every fall, winter and spring terms - Professional Development Presentation, Lunch and Learn talk to discuss a new policy or change to a program, and an Advising Forum where advisors and administrators share updates that impact student success.
- A call for applications for professional development scholarship with be announced early fall.
- We will recognize an outstanding professional advisor and faculty advisor at our annual spring Excellence in Advising awards ceremony.

AWARDS PROGRAM

The Division of Undergraduate Studies and the ACAA have collaborated to award one outstanding faculty advisor and one outstanding professional for excellence in advising/mentoring. Award winners will receive a $2000 award at the spring awards reception. Look for the call for nominations this winter.

2017-2018 HIGHLIGHTS

- ACAA was provided a budget by the Division of Undergraduate Studies. With these funds five advisors were awarded scholarships to attend a professional development opportunity, and committees were able to provide refreshments at some events.
- ACAA and the Office of Academic Advising hosted an advising mini-conference where presenters from the 2018 NACADA Region 8 gave their presentation to advisors on campus.
- Dr. Elizabeth Raisanen and Angel Dorantes were recognized at the fifth annual UO Excellence Advising reception.
