Academic Warning

Students receive an academic warning when the UO GPA is lower than 2.00, even if the UO cumulative GPA is 2.00 or higher. This notation is not recorded on the student's academic transcript.

Academic Probation

Academic probation is earned and the notation "Academic Probation" is recorded on the student's academic transcript whenever the following conditions exist:

1. When the UO cumulative GPA is lower than 2.00. Students who have earned 44 or fewer credits are allowed two terms of probation before they are subject to disqualification (P1, P2). Students with more than 44 credits are only allowed one term of probation before they are subject to disqualification (P2). Students on academic probation whose UO cumulative GPA is lower than 2.00 and whose UO term GPA is 2.00 or higher remain on academic probation
2. When the student's three most recent UO term GPAs are lower than 2.00, even if the UO cumulative GPA is above a 2.00 (P3).

Students on academic probation are limited to a study load of no more than 15 credits.

Disqualification

Academic disqualification is earned and the notation "Disqualification" is recorded on the student's academic transcript whenever the following conditions exist:

1. Students on academic probation (P2) for having a UO cumulative GPA lower than 2.00 who earn a UO term GPA lower than 2.00 in their next term.
2. Students on academic probation (P3) for having their three most recent terms of UO term GPAs lower than 2.00 (P3) and who earn less than a 2.00 term GPA for the fourth consecutive term.

These students are not eligible to enroll for future terms unless the Scholastic Review Committee continues the student on probationary status for a further term or reinstates the student.
